

COVID-19 and Legal Responses on the Island of Ireland

Virtual Symposium Organised by the Irish Association of Law Teachers and Northern/Ireland Health Law and Ethics Network

Friday 11 December 2020

REGULATORY APPROACHES TO THE PANDEMIC

09:30-11:30

Chair: Clayton Ó Néill

09:30-10:00

Maria Grazia Porcedda

Trinity College Dublin

Beyond Contact-Tracing Apps: Data Protection Implications of Data-Driven Measures Adopted in Ireland to Contain Covid-19

10:00-10:30

Ruby Reed-Berendt and Edward Dove

University of Edinburgh

UK-REACH: Exploring the Legal and Ethical Implications of Linking Healthcare, Employment and Registration Data of UK Healthcare Workers During the COVID-19 Pandemic

10:30-11:00

Edoardo Celeste

Dublin City University

Digital Technology and Privacy Attitudes in Times Covid-19: Formal Legality vs Legal Reality

11:00-11:30

Vicky Conway
Dublin City University
Guarding Against Covid

REGULATING VACCINATION AGAINST COVID-19: RIGHTS, ACCESS AND VACCINATION

11:30-13:00

Chair: Andrea Mulligan

11:30-12:00

Ollie Bartlett
Maynooth University
Do You Have a Right to a COVID-19 Vaccine in Ireland?

12:00-12:30

Aisling McMahon
Maynooth University
Patent-Holder Power & Access to Covid-19 Vaccines and Treatments: A Case for Scrutiny within Ireland

12:30-13:00

Clayton Ó Néill
Queen's University Belfast
The Merits of Adopting a Softer Approach to Vaccination of a Child in Care?

RESPONSES TO COVID-19 AND THE IMPACT ON PARTICULAR GROUPS

13:00-14:30

Chair: Neil Maddox

13:00-13:30

Ivanka Antova
Queen's University Belfast
Dis/ability and COVID-19: Improving Legal and Policy Responses Through Grassroots Disability Ethics

13:30-14:00

Ronagh McQuigg
Queen's University Belfast
Domestic Violence – The 'Shadow Pandemic'

14:00-14:30

Katharina Ó Cathaoir
University of Copenhagen
The Rights of Elders in Ireland During and Beyond COVID-19

CROSS-BORDERNESS

14:30-15:30

Chair: Ollie Bartlett

14:30-15:00

Mary Dobbs
Maynooth University
Governance of Epidemiological Units: Localised to Centralised Approaches

15:00-15:30

Brenda Daly
Dublin City University
Opportunity lost? Evaluating the Cross-Border Response to the Covid-19 Pandemic

LOOKING AHEAD

15:30-17:00

Chair: Mark Flear

15:30-16:00

Mary Guy
Lancaster University
(How) Is COVID-19 reframing the relationship between the NHS and independent healthcare in the UK?

16:00-16:30

David Archard

Queen's University Belfast

Do We Need National Ethics Committees? Some Critical Questions

16:30-17:00

Emma McEvoy

Maynooth University

Procuring During a Pandemic